

Worksheet for classes 1 and 2

- Draw a generic neuron. Label its main parts. On your drawing of a neuron, indicate the direction of flow of information.
- Distinguish between the central and peripheral nervous systems.
- Draw a simple diagram of the lateral surface of a human brain. Draw the central and lateral sulci. Label the major brain regions visible in this view. Color in each of the lobes of the cerebral cortex visible in this view.
- Draw a simple diagram of the ventral surface of a human brain. Label the major brain regions visible in this view.
- Draw a simple diagram of the medial surface of a human brain. Label the major brain regions visible in this view.
- Define or draw the three major planes of section that we use to study the brain.